

Balearic Soul

Gonzalo Luis & Ramón López EST. 1995 · SPAIN

One of Spain's most respected house duos: true technicians and a mainstay of the quintessential Balearic sound, shaping dancefloors at home and abroad for three decades.

Their Babylonia mixes of "Born Again" became a genuine crossover smash, hammered by top DJs worldwide and pushed by heavy radio play into the single and dance charts across Europe, the Middle East and Africa, reaching number one in Portugal, Holland, Angola, Albania, Lebanon, Greece and Romania.

That success sits inside a long catalogue of club classics, with their Balearic Soul remixes of Moloko's "Forever More," Fish Go Deep's "The Cure & The Cause" and DJ Chus's "That Feeling" still in circulation today. "That Feeling" was reissued by Stereo Productions in 2025 for the track's 25th anniversary.

It is their own brand of house, energetic technical sets full of personal edits and live bootlegs, that keeps the sound fresh and original and the floor always heaving.
